It is not the food you swallow or it is not the food you digest.

If you swallow and taste and don't digest and chew, nature cannot give you health, for you do not furnish the ammunition.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain in pure, concentrated form the essences which, when they reach the stomach, turn dyspeptic conditions into those of healthy digestlon.

These little tablets are dissolved in the mouth by saliva; they mix with this fluid and are passed down into the stomach, where they immediately set to work upon the food and digest it. They are many times more powerful than the human digestive fluids, and thus replenish nature with those places which sickness, abuse or wrongful eatling have exhausted.

The world's best chemists in Europe and America agree on the ingredients best adapted to perfect digestion. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are these ingredients presented to the stomach in the most pleasant and lasting form.

ginia Daughters in memory of the Virginla soldiers who had died in the Philippines, earnestly urged the State chapters to solicit donations of books for the Manila Library. These books are sent throughout the provinces of the islands for use by the soldiers.

Mrs. Sayre, of Hampton Chapter, read a letter from a member of the National Board on American History, offering to co-operate with the conference in its historical work and touching upon the movement to erect a suitable memorial to the founders of the republic, for which a fund is now being raised.

Mrs. Reed, of Bedford City, an experienced and devoted educator, read a very valuable paper on the education of the young, which received the hearty approval of the conference and which was ordered to be published. Mrs. Reed told of her work in the mountain regions of Virginia, North Carsina, Tennessee and Kentucky, and of the appaling ignorance she found there.

Mrs. Reed said that Virginia was awakening to the importance of the education of the masses, and the Daughters should not be backward in aiding and sustaining this work. We should be as mothers to the children Baughters should not be back rard in aiding and sustaining this work. We should be as mothers to the children who are to be our future soldiers and voters in guiding and directing their education. What holler right can women have than the right to aid in the education and the uplifting of mind, soul and body of the young?

the Alleghany Hotel stands, a quartet of brass instruments played most effectively that sterling old hymn, "Americas" just as the flag was unfuried and a voiley fired. The whole affair was unique in many respects. Just as the speakers came to their perorations some incidental music added very much to the effectiveness of their remarks.

Fifty women for weeks were engaged in working the flag.

The allegation is that the company is solvent and the complaints pray that the Norfolk Cold Storage and Ice Company, the Atlantic and A. L. Woodsworth be made defendent to the bill; that an account be taken of the property of the company; that the mortgage be foreclosed and the property sold.

CASE OF CASHIER OVERBEY.

Hung Jury Discharged and New Venire to Be Summoned for Next Trial.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

BOYDTON, VA., October 15.—Judge Barksdale, after discharging the jury in the Overbey trial, which failed to agree; with the prosecuting attorney, Major Rison, left for their homes. Before leaving here he ordered the sheriff to summon sixty veniremen for the trial of the indictments against Overbey, and will begin the proceedings on Wednesday next. The court reduced the amount of the bail bond in the case of Cashier Haskins, in renewing his bond yesterday, from $10,000 to $8,000. It is hard to estimate the cost of these two prosecutions against the cashier. Already eight and one-half days have been consumed in the trial of one indictment, and yet between them there are more than a dozen to be tried.

Had Sympathy of Jury. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] SMITH'S CROSS ROADS, VA., October 15,—According to information gathered while attending the trial of Cashier E. W. Overbey, the names of the jurors favoring conviction are: J. A. Copley, C. G. Johnston, J. E. Smith, E. E. Taylor, G. T. Wright, R. B. Borbitt and L. J. Newman.

Those for acquittal were R. F. Northington, B. B. Smith, A. J. Lambert, B. E. Pulley and C. G. Crow.

Several jurors favoring punishment after being discharged declared they favored the lightest punishment that aw provided, a fine of $100 and one year in the penitentiary, and declared they would pay the fine and circulate a petition to be sent to the Governor asking for a pardon for Overbey.
